

PRISON RAPE ELIMINATION ACT
2017 ANNUAL REPORT

San Juan County Adult Detention Center
871 Andrea Dr.
Farmington, NM 87401

Thomas C. Havel, Warden

San Juan County Adult Detention Center is committed to meeting the requirements for the PREA (Prison Rape Elimination Act of 2003) and enhancing the safety and security of SJCADC offenders as a result thereof. This report provides a summary of the facility's efforts in PREA compliance. By examining the aggregation of facility data, SJCADC is dedicated to improving the effectiveness of sexual abuse detection, prevention, and responses.

PREA 2017 REPORT

Purpose

This document serves as an annual review to assess and improve the effectiveness of sexual abuse prevention, response policies, practices, and training in the San Juan County Adult Detention Center pursuant to Standards 115.88 and 115.89 of the national PREA standards.

The Facility is required to:

1. Review and aggregate incident-based sexual abuse data annually to improve the effectiveness of sexual abuse prevention, detection, and response policies, practices, and training to include:
 - a. Identifying problem areas;
 - b. Taking corrective action on an on-going basis; and
 - c. Preparing an annual report of its findings and corrective action.
2. Compare the current year's data and corrective actions with those from prior year's and assess the facility's progress in addressing sexual abuse.
3. Publish the annual report on the SJCADC website.

SJCADC Achievement in 2017

To ensure compliance, SJCADC continues to:

- Require PREA classroom training for all new SJCADC officers, annual training requirements for all SJCADC employees, as well as contractors and volunteers.
- Conduct PREA audits;
- PREA Coordinator and PREA Investigator attend PREA training to increase knowledge of PREA;
- Track allegations and/or incidents in a data tracking log.

PREA 2017 REPORT

Zero Tolerance Policy

The San Juan County Adult Detention Center shall have a zero tolerance for sexual misconduct involving inmates. The adult detention center shall provide a safe, humane and secure environment, free from sexual violence, misconduct, harassment or retaliation, by establishing definitions of prohibited conduct and maintaining a program of prevention, detection, investigation, response and tracking of all alleged and substantiated sexual misconduct.

Furthermore, sexual misconduct between staff and inmates, volunteers or contract personal and inmates, or inmates and inmates, regardless of consensual status, is prohibited and subject to administrative discipline and/or criminal sanctions. Examples of sexual misconduct include, but are not limited to:

Inmate-on-Inmate Sexual Abuse or Sexual Harassment

Staff-on-Inmate Sexual Abuse or Sexual Harassment

Voyeurism

Voyeurism by a staff member, contractor, or volunteer means an invasion of privacy of an inmate for reasons unrelated to official duties, such as peering at an inmate who is using a toilet in his or her cell to perform bodily functions; required an inmate to expose his or her buttocks, genitals, or breasts; or taking images of all or part of an inmate's naked body or of an inmate performing bodily functions.

Substantiated Allegation

An allegation that was investigated and determined to have occurred.

Unfounded Allegation

An allegation that was investigated and determined not to have occurred.

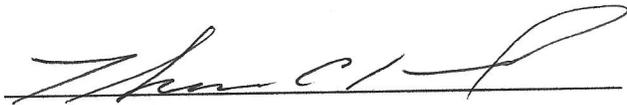

Unsubstantiated Allegation

An allegation that was investigated and the investigation produced insufficient evidence to make a final determination as to if the event occurred.

PRISON RAPE ELIMINATION ACT 2017 REPORT

San Juan County is committed to making progress to implement the requirements of PREA standards and make adjustments on a continuing basis.

The 2017 annual report includes data and reviews consistent with 115.87 and 115.88 and 115.89 (b) by utilizing a standard instrument and set of definitions set forth by the DOJ (Department of Justice) for the federal survey.
